The Court has received the parties' joint 26(f) report and finds that a scheduling conference is not necessary. Dates set by the Court in this action are listed in the "Schedule of Trial and Pretrial Dates" attached to this order. The dates set by the Court are firm dates. Absent extraordinary circumstances, which must satisfy the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 16(b) and be brought to the Court's attention in a timely manner, the Court will not modify these dates. The scheduling conference currently on calendar for June 1, 2020, at 10:30 a.m. is hereby vacated, and the matter taken off calendar.

The Court notes that the parties estimate that trial will consume one to four weeks. It is the Court's practice to impose limits on the length of civil trials. Based on the Court's current understanding of this action, the parties are highly unlikely to have as much time to try this case as they appear to anticipate.

Pursuant to the agreement of the parties, this matter has been referred to private mediation. The parties have fourteen (14) days to select a mediator who has no conflicts and is otherwise available to act as the settlement officer in this matter. If the parties are unable to agree on a mediator, each side shall submit to the Court the name of a mediator who agrees to act as the settlement officer. The Court will then randomly select the settlement officer.

The Court has entered a Protective Order in this action. A copy of the Protective Order will be served on the parties. The Protective Order may be modified or supplemented by the parties. However, given the trial and pretrial dates set by the Court, disputes concerning the Protective Order should not delay the parties' prosecution of this action.

Finally, the Court hereby orders that the deadline for a hearing on any motion for class certification and/or motion for conditional certification of a FLSA collective is August 24, 2020.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
